Feature: Diet-friendly Smoothies

Free-text description

Morning Freshness wants to attract health-conscious customers by proposing options to help smoothie buyers know if a smoothie is in line with their diet plans.

With the 'diet-friendly' mode, Morning Freshness members can buy smoothies knowing that they are not threatening their diet plans.

We hope this will encourage people on diets, or health-conscious customers in general, prefer Morning Freshness as a smoothie provider.

Scenario Outline: Smoothies are organized into categories based on their number of calories
